

R&R Insurance Services, Inc.

R&R Insurance continues to grow under a sole owner, Ken Riesch. Ken invests in the growth of our agency, and the resources and technology we offer our clients. His goal is to create a sales culture and grow profitably, provide outstanding service to our clients, support the communities where we work, and have his children Jack, Bryon, and Stephanie become the succession plan of the organization; all three are currently working at R&R Insurance.
